Oratio de Sancta Sindone
Christi

Domine Iesu, qui in sancta sindone, qua corpus tuum sacratissimum in Cruce depositum, a Ioseph involutum fuit, passionis tuae vestigia reliquisti: concede propitius, ut per mortem et sepulturam tuam ad resurrectionis gloriam perducamur. Qui vivis et regnas cum Deo Patre in unitate Spiritus Sancti, Deus, per omnia saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Winding-Sheet of Christ's Body

O Lord Jesus Christ, who didst leave the marks of thy passion on the holy winding-sheet, in which thy most sacred body was wrapped by Joseph when taken down from the cross; mercifully grant, that through thy death and burial we may be brought to the glory of the resurrection; who livest and reignest, etc.

Preces Stationum Prayers for the Stations

The text of this devotion is very Scriptural and liturgical, much more so than many more recent texts of the Stations, which are usually more meditational than purely prayerful such as this one. The text below draws extensively from the Good Friday Liturgy (Improperia/Reproaches) and Scripture, particularly the Psalms and the Book of Lamentations.

Except for Stations XIII and XIV, the Latin text below appears in the 1741 edition of the Coeleste Palmetum. Like the 1584 edition of Adrichomius' text on the Stations, this 1741 edition of the Coeleste Palmetum contains only the first twelve of our traditional Stations of the Cross. It was not until 1731 that Pope Clement XII fixed the number at fourteen and established what we have today as the Stations of the Cross. It is thus clear that this Latin text predates Pope Clement's decree, and is likely to have its origins in Adrichomius' 1584 text. Nineteenth century editions of the Coeleste Palmetum include the full fourteen stations as decreed by Pope Clement. The text below contains the full set of fourteen and comes from the 1741 edition and later editions which supply the missing two stations. The English comes from the 1870 edition of the Golden Manual, which contains the full fourteen stations.

SUSCIPE, Sancta Trinitas, hoc servitutis meae obsequium, quod ad divinae Maiestatis tuae gloriam, et recognitionem redemptionis nostrae, pro satisfactione peccatorum meorum ad impetrandam defunctis requiem, vivisque gratiam, omnibus gloriam offero, in unione meritorum Domini nostri Iesu Christi, Beatae Virginis

Preparatory prayer

RECEIVE, O holy Trinity, this my dutiful service, which I offer unto Thee in union with the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ, of the Blessed Virgin, and of all the Saints, to the glory of thy divine majesty, in satisfaction for my sins, in remembrance of our redemption, and to obtain for the departed rest, for the living grace, and for Mariae et omnium Sanctorum. Tibi laus, honor, et gloria, o beata Trinitas, in sempiterna saecula. Amen.

V. Deus in adiutorium meum intende.

R. Domine ad adiuvandum me festina.

Gloria Patri, et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto. Sicut erat in principio, et nunc, et semper, et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

I Statio
Ubi Christus morti adiudicatur

Iniquum hoc iudicium lubens ille subiit, ut te ab aeterna damnationis sententia absolveret.

Ant. Dixerunt impii apud se non recte cogitantes: circumveniamus iustum, quoniam contrarius est operibus nostris: promittit se scientiam Dei habere, Filium Dei se nominat; videamus si sermones illius veri sunt, et si est vere Filius Dei, liberet eum de manibus nostris: morte turpissima condemnemus eum.

all everlasting glory. To Thee be praise, and honor, and glory, O blessed Trinity, forever and ever. Amen.

V. O God, come to my assistance.

R. O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

First Station
Where Christ Is Condemned to Death

He willingly submitted to that unjust judgment, that he might deliver thee from the sentence of everlasting damnation.

Ant. The wicked have said, reasoning with themselves, but not rightly: Let us lie in wait for the just, for he is contrary to our doing: he boasteth that he hath the knowledge of God, and calleth God his Father. Let us see if his words be true. If he be indeed the Son of God, he will deliver him out of our hands. Let us

R. Ad palmam victoriae.

V. Domine, exaudi orationem meam.
R. Et clamor meus ad te veniat.

Oremus: Domine Iesu Christe...

XIV Statio
Ubi Iesu corpus sepelitur

Considera, o anima mea, quomodo corpus Iesu aromatibus condiatur, atque ita in monumento novo sepeliatur. Quibus tu honoribus Iesum, Redemptorem tuum, quotidie, sive sacramentaliter, sive spiritualiter excipis? An pro Iesu tuo recipiendo novum, et praeclaris virtutum ornamentis splendidum?

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Our Father... Hail Mary...

V. Through thee, O Virgin Mary, may we obtain salvation,

V. O holy Jesus, grant me to obtain, through Thy mother,
R. The crown of victory.

V. Lord, hear my prayer.
R. And let my cry come unto Thee.

Let us pray: O Lord Jesus Christ...

Fourteenth Station
The Body of Jesus is buried

Consider, O my soul, how the body of Jesus was wrapped in spices, and laid in a new tomb. With what honor dost thou receive Jesus thy Redeemer daily, either sacramentally or spiritually? or art thou always endeavoring to be, as it were, a new tomb for the reception of Jesus, bright with the beautiful ornaments of virtue?

tuam redemisti mundum.

V. Domine, exaudi orationem meam.

R. Et clamor meus ad te veniat.

Oremus: Domine Iesu Christe...

XIII Statio
Ubi Iesu corpus e cruce super afflictæ matris genua deponitur

Considera vehementes animæ dolores Mariæ, cum mortuum Filii sui corpus de cruce depositum suo complexu susciperet, et suis genibus sustineret. Caritas tantis eam doloribus affecit, eamque vere martyrem reddidit. Quamnam tu erga Salvatorem tuum sentis caritatem et commiserationem?

Ant. Cui comparabo te, vel cui assimilabo te, filia Ierusalem? Cui exaequabo te, et consolabor te Virgo filia Sion? Magna est enim velut mare contritio tua. (Lam 2:13) O Mater misericordiae, fac ut tecum portem Christi mortem, passionis consortem.

Thou hast redeemed the world.

V. Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come unto Thee.

Let us pray: O Lord Jesus Christ...

Thirteenth Station
The body of Christ is taken down from the cross, and laid upon the knees of his mother

Consider the vehement anguish of Mary's soul, when she received in her arms the dead body of her Son taken down from the cross, and laid him on her knees. Love caused her so great grief, and made her truly a martyr. What love and sympathy dost thou feel for thy Savior?

Ant. To what shall I compare thee, or to whom shall I liken thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? To what shall I equal thee, O virgin daughter of Sion? Great as the sea is thy desolation. O mother of mercy, make me to share with thee the death of Christ; make me a partaker of his passion.

Kyrie eleison.

Christe eleison.

Kyrie eleison.

R. And He opened not His mouth.

V. Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come unto Thee.

meam.

R. Et clamor meus ad te veniat.

Oremus: Domine Iesu Christe...

XII Statio
Ubi in Cruce moritur

Considera, quid moriens dixerit, et fecerit Iesus. Utinam tu similiter moriaris!

Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

I brought thee out from the house of bondage to the promised land; and when I came to thee from the bosom of my Father, thou didst lead me to the death of the cross. I planted thee my choicest vine, and thou wast

Ant. O vos omnes, qui transitis per viam, attendite et videte, si est dolor sicut dolor meus. Idcirco ego plorans, et oculus meus deducens aquas, quia longe factus est a me consolator, convertens animam meam.
